Re: AT&T Corp. Petition for Declaratory Ruling Regarding Enhanced Prepaid Card Services, WC Docket No. 03-133

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On Wednesday, March 24, 2004, Judy Sello and I, both of AT&T, met with Steve Morris and Paul Moon of the Wireline Competition Bureau's Pricing Policy Division to discuss issues related to AT&T's enhanced prepaid calling card ("EPPC") services. Consistent with AT&T's previous filings in the above-referenced proceeding, we reiterated that AT&T's EPPC service is an enhanced or "information service" under the Communications Act and well-settled precedent and that EPPC calls are jurisdictionally interstate. In addition, we also responded to arguments raised in the February 26, 2004 ex parte filed by General Communication, Inc. The attached document served as the basis of our discussion.

One electronic copy of this Notice is being submitted to the Secretary of the FCC in accordance with Section 1.1206 of the Commission's rules.

Sincerely,
